

Symptoms

If a child is showing symptoms that we have described, this does not mean that they definitely have a brain tumour. These symptoms can have a variety of other causes, which may or may not be serious.

However, any child with symptoms that are unusual for him or her, or that are persistent or unexplained should be checked as soon as possible by a General Practitioner.

Please remember that any child needing urgent medical help should be taken to the nearest emergency department.

Decline in school performance

Frequent Flu Like Symptoms

Reduced Consciousness

Diabetes Insipidus

Behaviour Change

Persistent or Recurrent Vomiting on Waking

Loss of bowel or bladder control

Wobbly or Gaited Walk

Delayed or Arrested Puberty

Abnormal Head Position such as a head tilt or stiff neck

Poor Co-ordination

Fits or Seizures

Abnormal or poor balance

Abnormal Eye Movement & or double vision

Headaches

Unexplained Weight Loss or Gain

